Form 990 - Organization's Mission or Most Significant Activities

In 2025, Myla's Beleaf served as a critical lifeline for Florida families fighting childhood cancer. The organization provided direct financial and emotional support to more than 110 children and their families, distributing over $360,000 in emergency assistance. This support helped stabilize families facing sudden loss of income and rising medical-related expenses, allowing parents to remain present for their children during treatment and recovery.

Form 990 - Organization's Mission

Myla's Beleaf exists to support children with cancer and their families by providing financial assistance and compassionate emotional support during and after diagnosis. The organization helps families meet essential living needs so they can focus on their child's treatment and well-being without the added burden of financial crisis.
